Puerto de Santiago is one of the population entities that make up the municipality of Santiago del Teide, on the island of Tenerife -Canary Islands, Spain. Situated on the coast, taking advantage of a small cove protected by a small breakwater, it was one of the most important natural refuges on the west coast of the island. In recent years it has become one of Tenerife's most attractive tourist resorts, closely linked to the Los Gigantes cliffs and La Arena beach.
