For sale in Bajamar agricultural property with 5.183 m2 of land, with a house of 100 m2. Bajamar is a coastal town in the northeast of the island, a small tourist and holiday resort which is famous for its natural seawater pools.

The finca is located 100 m above sea level and is surrounded by other fincas, which makes it a magical and quiet place surrounded by nature, only a few steps away from the village.

The house is to reform and has a lovely terrace of about 25 m2 called 'El Mirador' because of the open views over the whole coast.

There is a water tank of 111 m2 which is filled with municipal water and this allows a good care of the countryside.

On the finca there is an automatic irrigation system recently installed.

This house is perfect for those who want to have their freedom and tranquillity in an independent environment without being too isolated as the village and the coast are very close.

IBI: €137/year.
