Exclusive sale of an old semi-detached house to renovate, built in the year 1900. The property is located in the centre of the old town of CHIO, a picturesque village in the municipality of Guia de Isora.

The house is built on the plot of 36 m2 and has 2 floors, each one of 30 m2 of surface, connected by the staircase.

The property needs major renovation. The electricity and water installations have been requested and paid for.

The unbeatable location in the centre of the village, with good connection to the motorway of Tenerife South, makes this property a good investment opportunity as a second home or rural house.
